

The Pledge

I will respect people who are different from me.

I will treat others the way I want to be treated.

I will stop and think before I act and speak.

I will find peaceful ways to resolve conflicts.

I will encourage my friends to reject all forms of violence.

I will handle my rights and privileges as if they were a fragile piece of glass.

I have faith in myself to carry out this pledge.