

Immunization requirements for children attending child care centers, preschool facilities and schools in New Jersey, both public and private, are established by the New Jersey Department of Health.

Information about the minimum immunization requirements for school attendance in New Jersey, pursuant to NJAC 8:57-4: Immunization of Pupils in School, can be found on the following website: www.state.nj.us/health/forms/imm.pdf

The New Jersey Department of Health, Vaccine Preventable Disease Program, has posted answers to several frequently asked questions about immunizations on the following website: www.state.nj.us/health/cd/documents/vaccine_ga.pdf This website also provides information regarding religious and medical exemptions from immunizations.

Additional information regarding these immunizations can be found at www.state.nj.us/health/forms/imm.pdf